PURPOSE:

The intent of this pharmacy clinical policy is to provide coverage guidelines for the Cost Benefit Program.

Please refer to the member's benefit document for specific information. To the extent there is any inconsistency between this policy and the terms of the member's benefit plan or certificate of coverage, the terms of the member's benefit plan document will govern.

Drug Label Name	HCPCS Code	Generic Description
H.P. Acthar Gel	J0800	Repository Corticotropin
Cortrophin gel	J3490 (NOC)	Repository Corticotropin
Makena	J1726	Hydroxyprogesterone Caproate injection
Quzyttir	J1201	Cetirizine hydrochloride injection
Susvimo	J2779	Ranibizumab, intravitreal implant

POLICY:

The plan requires the use of the most safe, efficacious, and cost-effective medication when therapeutic alternatives are available.

Drugs identified by the Cost Benefit Program as excluded have been determined to have no benefit over another formulation.

Many drugs have been developed for convenience issues such as combination drugs to allow one drug to be taken instead of two, extended-release drugs to allow less frequent dosing of medications or different formulations for ease of administration.

When reliable evidence does not support the need for a combination, an extended-release formulation, or a new formulation over the existing alternative(s), a drug is considered not cost-effective. These drugs will be listed as excluded on the Cost Benefit Program and use of alternative drugs will be required.

When reliable evidence does not support the preference for a drug when compared to a similar drug in the same drug class that demonstrates similar efficacy and safety data and thus, does not justify any significant cost difference, a drug is considered not cost effective. These drugs will also be listed as excluded on the Cost Benefit Program and use of alternative drugs will be required.

Drugs listed on the Cost Benefit Program are considered benefit exclusions. Overrides for drugs on the Cost Benefit Program are not allowed.

Benefits must be available for health care services. Healthcare services must be ordered by a provider. Healthcare services must be medically necessary, applicable conservative treatments must have been tried, and the most cost-effective alternative must be requested for coverage consideration.

DEFINITIONS:

Reliable evidence:

The Plan will consider the following categories of reliable evidence, none of which shall be determinative by itself:

1. Whether there is a final approval from the appropriate government regulatory agency, if required. This includes whether a drug or device can be lawfully marketed for its proposed use by the FDA; or if the drug, device or medical treatment or procedure is under study or if further studies are needed to determine its maximum tolerated dose, toxicity, safety or efficacy as compared to standard means of treatment or diagnosis; and
2. Whether there are consensus opinions or recommendations in relevant scientific and medical literature, peer reviewed journals, or reports of clinical trial committees and other technology assessment bodies. This includes consideration of whether an oncology treatment is included in the applicable National Comprehensive Cancer Network (NCCN) guideline, as appropriate for its proposed use, or whether a drug is included in any authoritative compendia as identified by the Medicare program such as, the National Comprehensive Cancer Network Drugs and Biologics Compendium, as appropriate for its proposed use; and
3. Whether there are consensus opinions of national and local health care providers in the applicable specialty as determined by a sampling of providers, including whether there are protocols used by the treating facility or another facility, studying the same drug, device, medical treatment or procedure.
